0.784

The English and Mathematics progress is shown for learners at the end of their 16-18 study who did not achieve A*-C in GCSE English and Mathematics qualifications by the end of Key Stage 4. For most starting points the national average progress is negative and a difference of 0.5 represents half a grade more progress than learners nationally with the same starting point and a difference of 0.75 represents three quarters of a grade or more above national average progress.
