If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, The Polesworth School encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the Head of Centre.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- Forms are available from the Exams Office
- Completed forms should be returned to the Exams Office
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 working days

How a formal complaint is investigated.

- ▶ The Head of Centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.
- ▶ The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 2 working weeks.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 5 working days.
- The appeal will be referred to the Chair of Governors (or a special Committee of the Governing body) for consideration.

This form must be completed in full; an incomplete form will be returned to the complainant/appellant.
